The League of Women Voters of Maine presents:

Understanding Ranked Choice Voting

Join your friends and neighbors for a nonpartisan educational presentation about what Ranked Choice voting is, how it works, why we're using it for the June Primary, and what Mainers need to know about casting ballots in the June Primary Election.

Come and get answers to your questions about Ranked Choice from League representative Jon Monroe, formerly an elections official at the Maine Office of the Secretary of State, Elections Division and analyst at the Chicago Board of Elections.

This event is free and open to everyone.
