

Are you between the ages of 18 and 24 and living in Western Maine?

Do you have experience with or thoughts about what it's like to get into the healthcare field in your area?

The University of Southern Maine (USM) has been working on a tool to help guide young adults through the process of starting a healthcare career in Western Maine. We are asking for you to review it and tell us what you think! If you participate you will receive a small financial incentive to help cover the cost of transportation and reimburse you for your time.

Where: Skowhegan CareerCenter; 98 North Ave #20, Skowhegan, ME 04976

When: Friday, March 2nd, 11am-1:30pm

What will we do: We'll do an icebreaker to get familiar with each other, review some documents, do a few small group activities with a worksheet, share out about our thoughts to the larger group, and eat lunch. It will last 2.5 hours total (including lunch).

Who will be there: Around 10 young people and 3 staff members from USM.

What to bring: Yourself!

Payment: You'll be paid $40 with a check mailed to you. (There will also be an opportunity to earn an additional $50 for follow-up participation)

Contact Person: Kera Pingree – Please e-mail kera.pingree@maine.edu, or call/text 207-400-5477 if you are interested, or have questions or concerns! Don't worry about formality.

To participate you must be between the ages of 18 and 24 and be interested in the healthcare field.

We hope to see you there!
